Barnesville Working for the Terminus of the Tuscarawas road. rom the Barnesville Enterprise.

From the Baraesville Enterprise.

An informal meeting of many of the leading citizens of Barnesville, was held at Hunt's Hall on Tuesday evening, to consider the question of building a railroad to connect Barnesville with the Tuscarawas Valley line. Chalkiey Dawson, Esq., acted at President, with J. M. Lewis, as Secretary. A letter was read from the President of the road, stating that they intended to extend their road either to Wheeling or some point on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad. After considerable discussion a motion prevalled to appoint a committee of incorporators to appoint a committee of incorporators for a road from Barnesville to Freeport, to connect at or near that place with the Tuscarawas Valley Railroad. Francis Davis, J. M. Lewis, John Bradfield, J. R. Hunt and Wew Still. Hunt and Wm. Smith, were appointed on said committee, with power to appoint five other incorporators along the proposed line. The incorporators will endeavor to effect an arrangement by which either the main line or a branch line of the above paned road, will be seen London, March 15.—In the House of Commons, to-night, Disrali alluded to the public anxiety to know the nature of the American reply to Granville's note, and again asked the government if it could be laid before the House.

Mr. Gladstone replied that a cabinet meeting was to be held to morrow. ine of the above named road will be ex-
